7:30 p.m.

Barrett Hall

Eiji Harrison

Eiji is a senior at The Waverly School in Pasadena. Eiji began studying piano at the Pasadena Conservatory of Music in 2012, his first teacher being Enrique Gonzalez Medina. In 2014 he began studying with Vatché Mankerian and has continued to the present. Eiji has also taken a Piano Masterclass with Dr. Stephen Pierce. Eiji performs with bands created in his high school music class; rock, pop, jazz and heavy metal, and has been the Musical Director for several school drama productions. He plans to study Anthropology at UCLA in the fall of 2023.

Special Thanks

Special thanks to Vatché Mankerian for his patient guidance throughout my journey of piano, teaching me not just technique and musicality, but thoughtfulness and resilience, having great influence on who I am today. Thank you to the Pasadena Conservatory of Music for supporting me throughout the years- providing me with irreplaceable experiences throughout practices and nerve-racking performances. Thank you to my family for always supplying me with unwavering support, giving me space to work, yet always tuning in to my playing and encouraging me when I needed it.
