Tristan Rooke

Tristan is a graduating senior from the Instrumental Music Piano conservatory at California School of the Arts - San Gabriel Valley. He has been learning piano for 14 years with Dr. Stephen Cook and is currently studying under him at the Pasadena Conservatory of Music. This fall, Tristan will be working on a Bachelor of Music with an honours year for classical piano performance at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama in Cardiff, Wales.

Special Thanks

Thank you Dr. Stephen Cook for enduring me for all of these years. Thank you also to all of the music teachers at California School of the Arts (Mr. Broberg, Mr. McGeough, Dr. Kim, Dr. Wang, and countless others), all of the students in the piano conservatory, and all of the students in Broberg's jazz combo. I've learnt a lot from their classes and also from my classmates, who have provided influence, inspiration, and critique. Thank you to my brother, Spencer, for inspiring me to take up piano in the first place. Thank you Mom and Dad for allowing me to take lessons and for supporting me all of these years. Thank you Grandma for helping me with my music theory workbooks when I was too young to read and write through them myself, and encouraging me to keep practicing my scales and exercises. I sincerely appreciate all of you guys, as I wouldn't have gotten here without your support.
