He was a member of the Cal State LA Wind Ensemble, and is now in the Pasadena Youth Orchestra and the Colburn Youth Orchestra where he has been the principal clarinetist for the last two years. In the summer of 2022, he volunteered for 7 weeks at Cazadero Music Camp in Northern California. Last summer, he attended Idyllwild Arts Summer program where he studied under Amanda Walker. Besides clarinet, he has also played piano and the oboe. Outside of music, Joaquin enjoys anything involving psychology and neuroscience. He loves socializing with his friends as well as meeting new and engaging people.

Special Thanks

First off, I'd like to thank my amazing parents for making all of this possible. They kept me going all these 8 years and encouraged me to keep improving my music through private lessons, summer music camp, and attending concerts since I was a child. You are, and forever will be, my biggest supporters. I love you both dearly. Secondly, I'd like to give a big thanks to my amazing clarinet teacher, Laura Stoutenborough. Thank you for sharing your passion for the clarinet and challenging me with repertoire I never could have imagined playing. I'm grateful for all that you've taught me. Lastly, thank you to PCM for creating this wonderful space to learn and grow!

Trisha Chakraborty

Trisha is currently a Junior at South Pasadena High School and has played the clarinet for 7 years. In 2020, she began her studies at the Pasadena Conservatory of Music with Laura Stoutenborough which led to her ongoing participation in the Pasadena Youth Orchestra. In 2021, she was selected to be a part of the California All State Honor Band, and she returned in 2023 after also being accepted into the Southern California (SCSBOA) Honor Band. Last summer, Trisha attended the Idyllwild Arts Summer Program, where she studied with Amanda Walker. After loving the chamber music opportunities there, she joined PCM's chamber music program where she currently plays in a piano trio. At her high school, Trisha leads an after-school music tutoring program where she teaches clarinet to local middle school students. Whenever she isn't playing the clarinet, you can find her either crocheting or at her karate studio!
