Amber String Quartet

Based in Pasadena, the Amber String Quartet is a musical collaboration between Danielle Tsai (violin), Bai Xue (violin), Eliana Andrea (viola), and Paulina Salazar (cello). Formed in Fall 2023 under the guidance of Ms. Aimée Kreston at the Pasadena Conservatory of Music, they have participated in masterclasses with Geneva Lewis and Gabriel Martins. They are currently finalists in the Music Teacher's Association of California (MTAC) VOCE competition and will be participating in the Saint Paul String Quartet Competition in April. The name "Amber" is inspired by the precious stone which represents balance, courage, and self-expression— qualities that we strive to emulate as we create music.

If you would like to make a donation towards the Amber String Quartet's travel expenses, donation forms and envelopes are in the main hallway. You can also make a donation by scanning the QR code below, or contact Melissa Froehlich at 626-683-3355 ext. 107 or mfroehlich@pasadenaconservatory.org.
