She is a junior at Pasadena High School, where she is involved in the school newspaper, robotics, astronomy club, research club and the student think tank.

Special Thanks

I would like to thank my teacher Ms. Kreston for all of her guidance this past year, and to Ms. Kwan for accompanying me today. I would also like to thank all of my teachers, friends and family for all of your love and support and for being here today. Most importantly, I want to thank my parents for always being there and supporting everything I do.
