Ari Euredjian

Ari has been studying the viola for five years. He has been a part of the Pasadena Conservatory of Music for seven years starting with Megan Shung before moving to Brandon Encinas' class in the summer of 2021. In 2019, he joined the Pasadena Youth Symphony Orchestra and has been a part of it till now. He will be going on tour with them to Italy. For the past two years, Ari has been the principal violist in both the Symphony and Sinfonia divisions in PYSO and will also be leading his section on tour as well. In 2021, Ari began tutoring a student with PCM. He did this until August of 2023. Ari will be graduating as the Valedictorian of his high-school. He will be attending UC San Diego as a Human Biology major in Revelle college where he will be studying with aspirations to pursue medicine.

Special Thanks

I would like to thank Brandon for his invaluable instruction and Megan for introducing me to the viola. I would also like to thank my PYSO conductors and coaches for challenging me and helping me grow as a musician. Special thanks to my parents for their continued support and encouragement.
